Barcelona must be one of the most lavishly appointed cities when it comes to street furniture. Visitors to the new Rosa dels Vents square, close to the Barceloneta seafront, can now while away a sunny afternoon on this magnificent seat made by Barcelona-based Escofet. The modular low cast stone bench runs in a 100m circle around the perimeter of this new public space, and can accommodate hundreds of people at any one time. Escofet, which was founded in the early years of the 20th Century, works closely with architects on major streetscape projects.
